More Funds for the Hospital Association. Mr. Walter Wheat, of the firm of Hazlett, Wheat & Hays, Secretary of the local post of the T. P. A., which, by the way, has practically passed out of existence, is in receipt of a check for $100 from Arbuckle & Co., the big coffee house of Pittsburgh, that sum being the amount of a fine assessed ragainst and collected from a prominent jobbing firm of this city, by Arbuckle & Co., the offense being that the jobbing house sold Arbuckle's coflee under the standard quotations. A short time since enough members of "Post By" the local branch of the T. P. A., to hold a meeting, were gotten together and the affairs of the organization wound up. When the post was formed, about four years ago, it started off with a boom, but interest was allowed to lag and the organization for the past two years has been nothing more than one in name only. When it was wound up there were about $100 in the treasury; this amount it was determined to turn into the fund of the new City Hospital Association, and it is probable that Arbuckle's check for $100 in the treasury; this amount it was determined to turn into the fund of the new City Hospital Association, and it is probable that Arbuckle's check for $100 will go with the other, thereby swelling the hospital fund by about $200.

our grand spring exhibit—We intend, however, to keep you posted from week to week ou what goods we have here and at what prices we offer them—

WHEELING INSTALMENT CO. It's easy to sell goods cheap if they're bought cheap—We attribute our success to the fact that we know what to buy and when to buy—Ready money is a powerful factor, and we use it freely—But it is not all—"A fool and his money are soon parted." No matter what wealth we posseesed we would be as a fool in the market—Had we not a knowledge of our business—We make merchandising a study—We take pride in it—When we buy we do so in such quantities as to enable us to undersell any competitor and give our customers what mpetitor and give our customers wha

nd the contest for delegates was a spirited and teresting one. Twenty delegates were chosen attend the coming Municipal Convention, hich is to be held next Monday, as follows; roun the First ward 4 delegates; from the Second all Third, 8 each and from the Fourth and amany good saying customers, who have been convinced of their folly in paying ancy prices at "Strictly Cash Houses"—
We court comparison—Nothing pleases us better—This sale gave the people and prices with those shown and quot by other houses—And these prices made food for reflection—6-ft. Oak Extension Tables at $4 each, seemed impossible to people who formerly paid $5 or $0 for the same table at "Strictly Cash Houses"—
But 6-ft. Oak Tables we sold at $1 each in numbers innumerable and on Instalments at that. We do what no other goods on Instalments at less than cash prices—Our numerous customers in this active and the seemed impossible to this assertion—And our 6-ft. Oak Extension that the seemed impossible to the seemed in the same table at "Strictly Cash Houses"—
But 6-ft. Oak Tables we sold at $1 each in numbers innumerable and on Instalments at that. We do what no other goods on Instalments at less than cash prices—Our numerous customers in this active and our 6-ft. Oak Extension Table at $1, on credit, is a standing practical proof.
